ORDER

This matter was discontinued by the parties on January 9, 2018. During the pendency of the matter the undersigned issued an Order requiring the Rockland County District Attorney to preserve all evidence in connection with a related criminal case, People v. JoJo John, (Ind. No. 481-2013), for possible use in this litigation. DE #46 dated 7/3/2014. By letter dated October 21, 2019, the Office of the District Attorney of Rockland County has requested that it be relieved of having to retain the evidence in question, specifically, the 19 foot Stingray boat. The Court has confirmed with a representative of the District Attorney's Office that there are no criminal appeal proceedings pending in the related criminal case. By notice issued October 24, 2019, the Court advised parties of the District Attorney's request and provided a method by which objections to the District Attorney's request could be filed. No objections have been received by the Court, and the deadline for such objections has now passed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the preservation order issued by the Court on July 3, 2014 (see Docket Entry #46) is rescinded as of the date of this Order, and the District Attorney of Rockland County is free to deal with the retained evidence as it sees fit, as it is no longer needed for the instant matter.
